A Soft Money Job.

Mr Edmunds did the same thing in 1872. This is no secret for Edmunds [illegible] only alluded to the matter taking much credit to himself for his cleverness of management. He [illegible] has men in every State and supplied them with money, and now in Michigan he boasts of [illegible] $30,000. Many who went into the movement were honest in their professions but it is [illegible] a side show to the Republican circus. It is hardly possible that the same thing can be [illegible] but it is certain that Edmunds intends [illegible]

A Busted Savings Bank

The Tribune's Washington special says that all information from the suspended Savings Bank points [illegible] of at least fifty per cent in value [illegible] a month and forty per cent afterwards [illegible] into a receiver's hands. The Anti-Chinese Immigration Laws of California Pronounced Unconstitutional.

Washington, June 13—In the U. S. supreme court [illegible] plaintiff in error vs. J. R. Freeman [illegible] commissioner of immigration, and [illegible] sheriff of the city and county of San Francisco, California, in error to the supreme court of the State of California. The full text of the opinion has been published [illegible] which a synopsis is given to present a clear view [illegible] was decided than [illegible] without much study. The statute [illegible] which is the subject of consideration in this case does not require bonds for every passenger [illegible] commutation money as the [illegible] New York and Louisiana do [illegible] among which are lewd and debauched women, but the features of the statute are [illegible] to show very clearly that its purpose is to extort money from a large class of passengers [illegible] their immigration [illegible] The statute also operates directly on the passenger [illegible] the master or owner of a vessel gives an onerous bond for future protection of the State against the support of the passenger [illegible] such a sum is to be commuted [illegible] case, he is not permitted to land from the vessel. The powers which the commissioner is authorized to exercise under this statute are such as to bring the United States into conflict with foreign nations, which can only be done by the Federal government. If the right of the States to pass statutes to protect themselves in regard to criminal [illegible] and [illegible] foreigners landing within their borders exists at all, it is limited to such laws as are absolutely necessary for that purpose, and this mere police regulation cannot extend so far as to prevent or obstruct other classes of persons from the right to [illegible] of the United States [illegible] a [illegible] in which [illegible] and [illegible] regulate [illegible] with [illegible] Mr Justice Miller delivered the opinion.

An Important Election Case Before the House

The [illegible] Washington special says the report of the House elections committee [illegible] in the Massachusetts [illegible] case [illegible] is liable to create [illegible] The question [illegible] is whether the [illegible] for election purposes [illegible] House elections committee [illegible] between Frost, the sitting Republican member, and [illegible] the contestant [illegible] light the fact that [illegible] the directors [illegible] a [illegible] navy yard [illegible] supply that just prior to the election [illegible] for extra men were employed in the yards to a [illegible] and that an [illegible] the command [illegible] were employed for political purposes, that they were all counted [illegible] and that all [illegible] for Frost, and the force was all discharged immediately after the election was over. The strongest single piece of evidence in the [illegible] a Harrison letter that the administration desired the election of Frost. On these facts the committee have predicated their decision that the whole of the navy yard votes should be thrown out. In the course of their report they say that no language can too strongly express their disapproval of the practices indulged in to corrupt the ballot box at navy yards. This report is likely to start a breeze as Robeson is charged with having meddled.

Winslow Correspondence.

The Standard this morning in an editorial on the Winslow correspondence says: The papers in the case presented to Parliament do not seriously alter our previous opinion that Secretary Fish is technically right regarding the terms of the treaty though on this point we feel much less confident as to the meaning of the act of 1870, but we are inclined to think that while the Secretary is technically right he is substantially wrong. The article excludes [illegible] The government has no desire to shelter Winslow or any other American criminal but it cannot depart from the position it has reluctantly taken and we must hope, therefore, that this government will soon find itself in a position to assent to an interpretation of the present treaty or the conclusion of a new one which will insure the object the two governments have in view.

Cincinnati, June 13.—[illegible]

Blaine Certain to be Nominated on Second or Third Ballot

After [illegible] delegates [illegible] the [illegible] candidates [illegible] Blaine [illegible] Hayes [illegible] the second ballot giving him [illegible]

Hayes for Vice President.

"Victory in the Air."

Cincinnati, June 12—There is victory in the air over there, said a delegate, pointing to the Blaine headquarters at the Burnet House this morning, and that opinion is now freely expressed on all hands. Blaine undoubtedly remains the candidate, with the largest following, and without cooperation on the part of other candidates, his nomination on an early ballot is imminent. This is the prevailing sentiment.

The Other Side.

Gov. Noyes, chairman of the Ohio delegation, looks as favorable to Hayes. The action of the Pennsylvania delegation this morning [illegible] Their meeting was stormy [illegible] If that is done the light several fail [illegible] Blaine will be [illegible] all ballots [illegible] the second [illegible] Pennsylvania delegation who are anxious to go to Blaine.

Hurrah for Conkling

The New Yorkers paraded the streets this evening with banners and a band for Conkling. Little is being said for the New York candidate.

Bristow's Chances.

Fairest work is being done for Bristow. Massachusetts [illegible] for Bristow and [illegible] Vermont [illegible] Bristow and [illegible] the vote in the Michigan delegation stands Bristow 11, Blaine [illegible] Hayes [illegible]

A New York Herald Enterprise.

Cincinnati, June 12—The New York Herald will issue an edition in this city to-morrow containing all the leading editorials and news of its regular city edition which will be transmitted by telegraph to-night.

Comments on Blaine's Illness, Etc.

New York, June 13—The Tribune's Chicago special thinks Blaine's illness is used as a weapon by those against him. Conkling is making capital of it, but Blaine still leads [illegible] The Tribune estimate is that Blaine is ahead. Conkling a good second. Morton is likely to be dropped early. Of the New York delegation Curtis and Lows are for Bristow, all others hold to Conkling.

Blaine's illness appears to have dampened the hopes of a few of his most ardent supporters at Cincinnati. There is however no defection among the delegates hitherto for him except from Michigan and their loss is more than made up by gains elsewhere. His prospects with the Massachusetts delegates are improving.

What the Conkling Men are About.

Meanwhile the Conkling men are working with great energy among the Southerners and patronage [illegible] are said to be offered [illegible] delegates who are reported as anxious for Conkling [illegible] still hold on again [illegible] the Blaine [illegible] prefer Conkling [illegible] rather than Conkling. What [illegible] gains are made by the Conkling party are the losses [illegible] principally of Morton and partly of Bristow. Here it now seems probable that the main issue will be between the forces of Blaine and Conkling.

Comments of the Press

The Herald's editorial says of Bristow as Secretary of the Treasury [illegible] [illegible] Blaine [illegible] Morton [illegible] the [illegible]

The Herald still thinks Conkling will [illegible] [illegible]

The [illegible] Cincinnati special thinks the race will be between Blaine and Conkling, and Bristow and Morton will be fifth [illegible]

The [illegible] Cincinnati [illegible] thinks [illegible] will certainly be beaten after the third ballot [illegible] struggle is to be between Morton and Conkling, with Bristow and Hayes running a waiting race.

Blaine Much Improved

Washington, June 13.—About [illegible] this evening Blaine called for paper and pencil and wrote the following message to be telegraphed to Congressman Hale at Cincinnati:

To [illegible] Hale, Cincinnati: I am entirely convalescent, suffering only from physical weakness. Impress upon my friends the fact that I [illegible] for [illegible] they have [illegible]

J. G. BLAINE.

The foregoing dispatch was written by Blaine [illegible] without [illegible] handwriting [illegible] weakness or hesitation.

Pennsylvania Solid for Blaine.

[illegible] Senator Wallace [illegible] received the following telegram from [illegible] Hon H. W. Blair at Cincinnati [illegible] solid for Blaine on first or second ballot. His nomination most probable.

Cincinnati Convention.

Blaine's Friends Jubilant

[illegible]

The story was that the Pennsylvanians after the [illegible] ballot would go over to Conkling in a body under the influence of Don Cameron. This however seems untrue.

The test vote of [illegible] Pennsylvania will give [illegible] Hartranft [illegible] Conkling and [illegible] Hartranft.

No Informal Ballot

[illegible] to have an informal ballot [illegible] now doubtful if after the most [illegible] Blaine [illegible] Pennsylvania [illegible] they expect it [illegible] Blaine's [illegible] the friends of [illegible] delegates who will struggle for the honor of being the strongest man. Blaine's friends say the [illegible] doctors' telegrams concerning Blaine's condition [illegible] explain it by the statement that the doctors who are attending him are homeopathists and that they [illegible] the [illegible] to differ with [illegible] Blaine [illegible] putting in nomination by Col. Ingersoll and Blaine's friends believe will be [illegible] upon which seems not likely that any attack is made in the convention upon Mr Blaine's [illegible] to carry the war [illegible] Blaine went up Morton naturally went down. The claims made yesterday we repeated to-day but the air of confidence with which they have been asserted had disappeared. The face and one thing and the [illegible] of gains from Blaine in the Northwest and Northeast vanished when it began apparent that Blaine had no intention of getting out of the way. They claim to-day for first or second ballot only Indiana and the votes conceded to them from the south asserting however that if Blaine should be gone out of the question then they will jump at once from 450 to [illegible] However they claim over 200 votes on the third ballot and the nomination soon after.

The Conkling men are as quiet and undemonstrative to-day as they were yesterday. But there experienced politicians among them have not been wasting time. There are rumors that they have been using money, but not in vain. But such transactions are not carried on in daylight and can be verified only when the [illegible] begins in the convention. Until then they cannot be said to be true. Mr Conkling's friends are busy, saying that what they call Morton's collapse only indicates that the fight in the convention will be between Blaine and the senator from New York, and that of the two the latter is the only one who can carry the Empire State. But this reasoning does not seem to have [illegible] upon the delegates [illegible] their hopes on the [illegible] but their general feeling is not one of [illegible]

[illegible] Bristow preserves an unbroken front and although the [illegible] all [illegible] his supporters that their [illegible] is [illegible] and are [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] from the [illegible] have [illegible] England [illegible] Bristow men have kept aloof from [illegible] conferences with the friends of the candidates [illegible] nearly to the [illegible] morning there will be a consultation of Conkling, Bristow and Morton leaders to see if they cannot [illegible] Hayes, in [illegible] that the Blaine [illegible] can be accomplished in no other way. The impression left among the supporters of Morton, Conkling [illegible] has not extended to the friends of Gov. Hayes who have been working for him with shrewd audacity. Ex-Gov. Noyes, who has the general planning of the campaign of Hayes, is confident that the Blaine line is weakening in many places and his hopes are that a bold dash may break it. He is said to have been assured by the chairmen of twelve different State delegations including South Carolina, Virginia, Michigan, New Hampshire, Missouri and Tennessee who have given him assurances of support after the first ballot.

The Ohio delegation to-day decided to stick solid for Hayes until a majority of delegates decide it is useless to continue the struggle.

It has been decided that the Hon Theo. M. Pomeroy of New York shall be temporary presiding officer. It was at first intended to have Judge Stanley Matthews of Cincinnati, but the fact that he is a strong Bristow man stood in the way, and a friend of Mr Conkling obtains the honor. Nothing is known as to who will be chosen permanent president.

Enthusiastic Bristow Meeting.

There was a large and enthusiastic gathering of the friends and supporters of Bristow at the opera house to-night. Hon Job Stevenson presided and brief addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Bellows of New York, Rev. Jas Freeman Clarke of Boston, Henry Armitt Brown and others. George William Curtis occupied a seat upon the platform. All the speakers agreed that Bristow [illegible] the [illegible] if nominated as he is the only one who has proved himself capable of coping with the widespread corruption [illegible] placing the civil service on a [illegible] footing. THE TERRITORIES

The strawberry crop in Walla Walla valley is enormous this year.

One firm of Walla Walla has shipped forty tons of eggs, 30,000 pounds butter and 10,000 pounds bacon this season.

[illegible] Martin is president and A. J. Cain, clerk of the Board of Trustees of the town of Dayton, W. T.; James Gough is town marshal and [illegible] treasurer.

No less than ten convicts are now confined in the Walla Walla county jail making that institution rather too crowded for comfort. They are all territorial prisoners and their expenses are defrayed by the Territory.

The Walla Walla Statesman says: We hear of a case of smallpox at Colfax. Mr Daniel V. O'Dell, the lawyer, being the person thus afflicted. He is supposed to have contracted the disease while on a visit to Lewiston.

The Walla Walla Watchman of the 10th says: Last Sunday's rain layed several grain fields that along the foothills, but it being so early in the season it may possibly get up again and show its golden heads by harvest time.

The Watchman says: There is no use to disguise the fact that Walla Walla made and put up butter is not what it ought to be. There is something wrong and that wrong is in the manufacturers. We ship like all other inland towns do, to wherever we can find a market, yet we never realize what other countries do. Packed Isthmus butter brings more here than our home made, and knowing this we ask dairymen where is thy blush?

The Walla Walla Union has this: "The Idaho Statesman has been taking dispatches [illegible] since the Nevada and Northern telegraph line was completed to that place. It paid $1,000 in advance for them but was informed the other day that they could not have any more dispatches for telegraphic service. As that paper has some $700 worth of the stuff on hand it is justly indignant at being thus 'bilked' by a bankrupt corporation."

A private letter from Hangman creek, Stevens county, dated the 9th of May, states that parties living there have found some of the bones of a very large animal. The neck bone says the letter will measure 2 1/2 to 3 feet in circumference; its shoulder [illegible] inches long by 24 wide and 3 inches in diameter. We have just got out a piece of the bone 3 feet [illegible] inches long being just a part of the [illegible] of the horn. The horn, when we get it all out, will measure 9 or 10 feet long.

The Olympia Echo is informed that there has been a wild man seen in township 19 north, range [illegible] east, near the Puyallup coal fields, and that he has been into different camps and carried away provisions. Some are of the opinion that he is a convict who has broken jail somewhere and strayed away to keep from being caught. Others believe that he is fleeing from justice for some crime that he has perpetrated somewhere. He is a man about five feet eleven inches in height, and rather slender build, with very heavy long black whiskers, and looks as though he had been away from civilization some time.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AND RESUMPTION.

The above is the title of an article which appeared in a late number of the N. Y. Times, showing the sentiments of the Republican party with reference to specie payments. It contains a statement of the action of Republican conventions in thirty five States, from which we extract the following:

Of the thirty five conventions, twenty two have passed resolutions on the subject of specie payments. Of these twenty one, fifteen have declared unequivocally for a sound currency; five have used language which, while it is not explicit, shows that there is no taint of inflation in the Republican ranks in the States which the conventions represent. Fourteen have made no allusion to the subject, but in at least seven of these States a sound currency is unquestionably desired, and finally only one State has suggested the repeal of any part of the resumption act. Even on this mere [illegible] analysis we are justified in what we said above, that the sentiments of Republican sentiment in favor of resumption is overwhelming.

If we examine the matter more in detail we find that this conclusion is greatly strengthened. Of the conventions which have declared unreservedly for resumption there are New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut in the East, Nebraska, Minnesota, Oregon, Colorado and California in the West, Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia and Delaware of the old border States and Georgia and [illegible] in the South. At the same time [illegible] Illinois, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Mississippi have made declarations which show that a hard money platform and a hard money candidate at Cincinnati would draw the full Republican vote in those States. In [illegible] Ohio, the most important of the last named group, the recent action of the Democrats has done precisely what similar Democratic action did last fall. It has forced the Ohio Republicans into the front rank of the advocates of resumption. This year, as last, the contest over the October election will be fought on that issue, and we have no hesitation in saying that it will result in another and more decisive victory for sound principles.

The crop of wheat harvested last year in Umatilla county is about disposed of; that crop amounted to [illegible] 714 bushels according to the assessor's report. This year the crop will, according to the same authority, amount to not less than one million bushels, or at least it ought to.

An aged Indian on the Umatilla reservation last week attempted to ride a wild pony, but the fire and vigor of his youth had departed, and the bucking animal laid the noble old red man low, breaking his collar bone, injuring his shoulder and almost fracturing his skull.

Fatal Affray.

San Francisco, June 13.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock this afternoon an affray occurred in a blacksmith shop on the corner of Eighth and Brannan streets between Michael Conlin, the proprietor of a saloon at the corner of Seventh and Brannan streets, and a blacksmith named Frank Miles, during which the latter was struck on the head with a sledge hammer, fracturing the skull and causing death in a short time afterwards. The trouble arose from a recent business disagreement though no serious result was anticipated. The parties met in front of the shop and the quarrel being renewed Conlin picked up a sledge hammer and struck Miles with it on the head, with the result above stated. Immediately after the killing Conlin disappeared and has not been as yet arrested. Several policemen are after him. The deceased possessed the reputation of being a quiet and industrious young man.

Later.—Conlon who killed Miles this afternoon by striking him with a blacksmith's hammer, gave himself up later in the evening. He states the blow was struck in self-defense, Miles attacking him with a knife.

Brutal Murder.

Los Angeles, June 13.—About 12 o'clock last night Ramon [illegible] Sotello was brutally murdered on a street known as Nigger alley. Deceased was a young man aged about 24, and connected by blood with one of our most respectable native families. An inquest was held at 10 o'clock this forenoon, at which the following facts were developed: A few days since Sotello was insulted and knocked down by one Francisco Lugo. Last night Ramon was engaged in a work of charity. An old native sick and destitute expired yesterday in his squalid quarters at the rear of Nigger alley. The chamber of death was reached by a dark alley leading from the street. Ramon had exerted himself to give the poor man a decent burial and late in the evening after having secured a coffin, arrived at the room with the trimmings for it. Francisco Garcia was then with him and after he had arranged the coffin he started for the street, Garcia accompanying him. When about midway of the dark alley two shots were fired. One entered the pit of the stomach, and must therefore have been fired from the front. The other entered the right breast, penetrating the heart, and must have been fired by one lying in ambush at the side of the alley. Ramon dropped dead in his tracks. At this stage another Garcia appeared on the scene, ran out into the street and set up a cry of murder which attracted the police. It now appears that Francisco Lugo was in the alley and strong suspicion is entertained that he fired one of the shots. This suspicion is derived from the Garcias, both of whom are under arrest, who have intimated as much. They also hint that there was still another party engaged in the assassination. They are reticent about the affair, and it is difficult to get anything from them. There is, however, no doubt that the killing of Ramon was a carefully planned assassination, and whether the Garcias were in the conspiracy remains to be ascertained; appearances certainly point strongly against Juan Garcia. The sheriff and his deputies, the marshal and police force have taken the necessary steps to arrest Lugo, who cannot have got far. It is very probable that all the parties to this cold blooded murder will be brought to justice. A large party is out scouring the country in quest of Lugo. It is said the horse on which he rode came into town this morning. If so he has probably secured a fresh animal, and as he has several hours' start he may make good his escape.

Chinaman Shot.

Sacramento, June 13.—About 9 o'clock this morning a Chinaman was shot in a house of ill fame on I street. The ball penetrated his intestines, causing death in two hours. Ah Jim did the shooting, but claims that it was accidental. The defunct Chinaman is said to have been worth a large sum of money.

Josephine.

A correspondent writing from Kerbyville informs us that the official count in Josephine shows the following majorities: district attorney, H K Hanna, Dem., 35; State senator, Dan. J. Green, Dem., 10; representative, W. W. Fiddler, Dem., 29; sheriff, Simeon Messinger, Rep., 7; clerk, Chas Hughes, Dem., 108; commissioners, J. L. Leyforth, Dem., 65, H Thornton, Rep., 9; assessor, Jas P Lewis, Dem., 69.

Umatilla.

The East Oregonian of last Saturday says: "The election in this county was much mixed—like the Englishman's drink, alf and alf. The following Democrats are undoubtedly elected: Legislature, J. L. Morrow and W S Goodman; judge, H G Yoakum; assessor, Thomas Benson; commissioners, S G Lightfoot and Ben Waldron; Sen.; treasurer, G. W. Webb. The following on the Independent ticket are the successful ones: sheriff, R. Sargent; clerk, J. H. Shelton; school superintendent, J. C. Arnold. Coroner, uncertain.

Union.

The election in Union county partook of the nature of mixed pickles, in fact there is a strong similarity between that county and Umatilla in election doings, as the result shows. The following are the Democrats elected: senator, M. Jasper; representatives, M. Mitchell, R. D. Ruckman; clerk, R. S. Cates; commissioner, E. T. Neville; assessor, J. K. P. Harris; surveyor, Willis Skiff. The following are the lucky Republicans: sheriff, S. O. Swackhamer; treasurer, Geo. Starke; commissioner, Jesse Imbler; school superintendent, L. J. Rouse.

POLITICS.

[From the Polk County Telegram.]

There was a time in the history of this nation when sentiment ruled the politics of the country. In the memory of many who live to-day, "hard cider and coon-skin," as emblems of political virtue were of more force than the clearest logic. The campaign of '44 made the "log cabin" the symbol of a power grander in its effects than the wisest philosophy—the power of a sentimental enthusiasm. "Tippecanoe and Tyler too" was the song and "Hurrah" was the chorus. The spirit of patriotism tingled to the finger tips. The spirit of enthusiasm was not always in the right direction, but it was always honest, grand and gallant. Those "good old times" have passed away forever.

A change came over the spirit of our dreams. The system of conventions was introduced and the fires of enthusiasm were extinguished as by a wet blanket. There has been plenty of enthusiasm, but it has been subdued by the whack of the party whip—plenty of stormy campaigns but they have been controlled by "an eye to the main chance." The stump orator, the most potent power of those days stepped down and the wire worker took his place. Politics got to be a cut and dried piece of business. Parties were marshaled into lines at the conventions, and the polls only served to ascertain the result of a battle already fought. Men stuck to their parties through thick and thin. To scratch a ticket was a worse political sin than to sell a vote.

The convention system was designed to concentrate party strength. This design was perfectly legitimate, so long as the convention actually represented the general sentiment and wishes of the rank and file of the party. But everybody knows that there have been conventions which failed to express the desire of even a respectable minority of the party whose mouth piece they claimed to be. But the party must win, and so the action of the convention became law to the party. The convention dictated to the party instead of being as it was intended to be, simply the means of ascertaining the party's wish.

But people are beginning to perceive that the business of governing themselves is not to be accomplished by hollow enthusiasm nor by carelessly delegating the duty to an irresponsible few. They feel to-day that it is a dry, hard, unromantic matter of business and must be done in a business way. The plowman must leave his plow and the merchant his books and go to the primaries. The people themselves must take the party machinery in hand and make it do the work it was designed to do. Here lies the secret of political reform. Separate organizations, gotten up for the purpose, cannot do it. Grumbling cannot do it. It can be done like any other business, only by attending to it. Better stay away from the polls than stay away from the primaries. Honest men there is the place to put in your oar if you want your party ship to sail safely and majestically and with no rotten freight aboard.

It is highly improbable that any candidate can be nominated on the first ballot, because every State which has a candidate will vote at first for its own man. But the second ballot, or, at most, the third, will be a contest for nomination, not for compliments. As soon as the informal or complimentary balloting is over, and a ballot is taken in earnest, Mr. Blaine will show his entire strength, and in all probability receive the requisite majority. ... h opposes ... [illegible], and is ... e all others, concedes a great ... a strength to Blaine on the first bona fide ballot than any other candidate can command, and places Morton, whom it regards as wholly impossible, as the second on the list, with Bristow third, and Conkling bringing up the rear. The figures of the Maine Campaign Club, having doubtless the benefit of whatever information Blaine possesses, give Blaine on the first ballot 353 votes certainly, with prospect of nearly 50 others. The whole number of votes in the convention is 756; necessary to a choice, 379. So if the Maine Club's estimates are anything near correct, Blaine will distance all competitors.

It seems to be understood that balloting will commence and perhaps be concluded—to-day. But the chances are the convention will get no farther to-day than an informal ballot, if even that point should be reached. The suspense will probably last another day.

COMMENDABLE PRUDENCE.

If there is anything to be more admired than courage, it is caution. This is the virtue of which the Democrats of Missouri chiefly boast. They displayed their caution in their State Convention the other day by resolving that "inasmuch as the National Convention of the Democratic party is to be held within the next 30 days, we deem it inexpedient to adopt any resolutions respecting the currency and finances of the country." Had they stopped short at this point, their prudence would have been amply shown. But they did not stop short. Neither did they spoil it all by saying something else that would not tally with this discreet declaration that they had no principles on the subject of National finances till they should be told by the National Convention what they were to believe. They went further, but in the same direction. They added a pledge that whatever the ... the true Democratic principle they would support with might and main. Nothing could convey to the outside world a clearer idea of the loyalty of the Missouri Democracy to their time-honored party, and surely nothing could more encourage the hearts of the managers of the concern, than their declaration of the readiness of the Missouri Democracy to swallow whatever dose may be prescribed for them, and call it Democratic principles. If the wet nurses of the Ohio rag baby shall succeed in forcing the St. Louis Convention to declare that bantling to be the legitimate offspring of the Democratic loins, then will the Missouri Democracy throw up their hats and shout hosannas to the rag baby. But should the national Sanhedrim declare the rag baby to be an imposture, and proclaim the Constitutional money of the country to be the only Democratic money, then the Missouri Democracy will make the welkin ring with huzzas for bullionists and "bloated bond-holders," and tear their hair in delight at the crucifixion of the rag baby and all its sponsors.

That is the sort of discipline that is worth having in a party. The individual ..., or even the State Conventions of the party should never have any principles which they would consider Democratic unless promulgated in due form by the grand central council; and all subordinate ... should, by all means, have the prudence not to [illegible] an opinion on any point of [illegible] controversy without first ... the permission of the ... who run the great national Democratic mill.

ALL FOR PRINCIPLE.

It is a clear case of acting on principle, and the Jackson county Democrats are the people who are entitled to the credit of it. This is the way it went, according to a report which appears to be well vouched for. Deeming it important to secure the election of Democrats to the legislature from that county, whom the ... ring could rely upon in the Senatorial election, the ring patriotically contributed, each according to his ability or his opportunities to grab from the State Treasury, and thus made up a handsome little sum of money which was forwarded to the managers of the organization in Jackson, to be put by them "where it would do the most good." But the aforesaid managers, being interested chiefly in the paying offices of the county, concluded it would do the most good if expended in ... those offices to the Democratic candidates, and furthermore that filthy ... ought never to be used for the election of legislators. So the trade dollars of the ... ring were traded off for votes for clerk, sheriff, &c., and the legislative representation of the county went into the hands of the opposition by default. Those who have doubted the sincerity of the Democratic politicians when they ... the air with loud proclamations of their undying devotion to principle, will doubt no more after beholding this stunning exhibition of self-sacrificing fidelity to the seven cardinal principles of the great Democratic party—"five loaves and two fishes."

On another page of this paper will be found a request ... ented to Mr. J. P. O. Lownsdale, by a large number of leading citizens of the third ward, that he stand as a candidate for councilman for that ward, and also his answer, assenting to the use of his name in that connection. The selection of Mr Lownsdale is certainly a wise one, as he is intimately acquainted with the duties of the office, having had three or four years' experience in the council. Mr. Lownsdale is a public spirited citizen, and was one of the most careful and efficient members that ever sat in the board. He could hardly decline a request made by so many of the leading citizens of his district. We are informed the request was not circulated till late yesterday afternoon, and that it met with general and cordial approbation Those inviting Mr. Lownsdale to stand as a candidate should now feel called upon to interest themselves for his election.

The people of Pennsylvania deserve a sound drubbing. The venerable Simon Cameron secured to them the honor of a place in the Cabinet, and furnished them a man to fill the place, his own son, to wit, and all for no consideration except that he was to give Conkling the Pennsylvania delegation in the Cincinnati convention. And now comes a dispatch from one of the delegation saying they won't honor the venerable Simon's draft. A people that can be so stupid or so ungrateful as to select such a delegation ought to be proclaimed banditti and turned out to the tender mercies of some such man as Gen. Sheridan, who would know how to deal with them.

A most villainous rumor comes to us from Josephine county, to the effect that a bargain was struck some time ago between parties capable of performing their respective parts, by the terms of which it was stipulated that the Governor should pardon the Briggs, convicted of manslaughter in Josephine county, and the State Senator elect from that county should in turn vote for the Governor for U. S. Senator. The State Senator will, in all probability prove the untruthfulness of the report, by refusing to perform the part assigned to him in the programme. At any rate, time will tell.

WHY WAS THE TICKET SCRATCHED?

SCAPPOOSE Columbia Co., June 11, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

My attention was called to an item in your paper a few days ago in relation to the amount of "scratching" done in this precinct on election day, and desire to explain some of the principal reasons for the same. Columbia county, for several years past, has been claimed as the banner Democratic county in the State, and the impression prevails throughout the State that it has been owing to the influence of one man. And His Excellency, L. F. Grover, and other prominent Democrats, have become so firmly impressed with this belief that we are called citizens of Sam Miles' county. In proof of this fact, I will call attention to some of the governor's official acts. At the regular term of the circuit court in this county two years ago, S. T. Goss was convicted of the seduction of his step-daughter and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary. His guilt was fully established. In a few days after his conviction Mr. Miles, with a petition with but a few names, started for Salem to see the governor, and returned two days afterwards in company with Goss. Miles' statement to the governor, as I have been credibly informed, was that Goss was an old Democrat, and had always stood by the party, and had worked hard for the governor's election. This, together with the governor's aspirations for senatorial honors, touched the tender heart of His Excellency, and he ordered the prison doors opened and Goss came forth a free man, without any ... the admonition of "depart and sin no more" from our tender hearted and Christian governor. The people of this county are opposed to having justice trampled under foot for personal aggrandizement, and as soon as the fact became known to the voters, that the Democratic nominee for representative favored the election of Grover to the U. S. Senate, they resolved to show their condemnation of Grover's corruption by voting for a man to represent them in the State legislature, who is honest and capable and a sound Republican; and they elected him by about 40 majority. They desire also to show to the people of the State of Oregon and L. F. Grover more particularly, that they are free and independent voters, who belong to no man or being, and are opposed to corruption in every form, and also to him as U. S. Senator, and that is "why all this scratch" on Scappoose.

CUMTUX.

From the New York Express we get a small piece of the biography of Lawrence Harney, Speaker Kerr's accuser. He is the brother in-law of Dutch Heinrich and Fatty Davis, of New York. Fatty is a noted thief and lives in an alley. It is said that Harney once was known under the alias of "Captain Willoughby."

A man in Baker county voted a $180 note, instead of a straight Democratic ticket, as he intended.

BAY VIEW HOUSE,

BAKER'S BAY, UNITY, W. T.

MR. DEXTER INFORMS THE PUBLIC that his House is now open for the reception of guests. Its advantages in every respect over any other Summer Resort are too well known to Oregonians to repeat here To strangers I will say that the place is in plain sight and across the Bay from Astoria, on the sheltered side of Cape Hancock, and very near and adjacent to the Fort and Lighthouse, on Baker's Bay, a beautiful sheet of water unequaled for Sailing, Rowing, Fishing and Bathing. The dark forest with its picturesque drives, its mountain springs, profusion of wild berries, wild flowers and ferns, the horse trail to the Cape for Equestrians or walkers, is one of the most delightful Panoramas to the eye ever witnessed The cosy beaches, its caves, luxuriantly wooded Island, its views of Astoria, Chinook, Fort Stevens, moist old Tillamook, in the blue distance

The courteous hospitality of the officers of the Garrison at the Fort, and also of Mr. Munson and family, of the Lighthouse, make that place well worthy of a visit.

The Salt Water Bathing in the bay within a few feet of the hotel, excels anything far or near, for warmth of the water and mildness of its waves far preferable to the heavy surf and cold winds for women, children and invalids, while the sturdy swimmer or those who love the foaming surf, in a few minutes walk will find a beach unsurpassed in beauty, hard and level for one continuous drive of thirty miles. At this end are huge rocks stretching out into the ocean, from which fishers take from the sea Bass, Rockfish, Tom Cod, Porgies, etc, etc Crabs, Clams Oysters, &c., in abundance, (and the Table will never lack a sufficiency of those desirable adjuncts.) Boats upon the Bay, Saddle Ponies for the children, Teams to the Weather Beach, Croquet, Swings, Quoits, etc, FREE to Guests

Prices reduced from the old tariff.

To those who would like to camp out, wood and water and use of ground free Groceries, provisions, milk eggs, butter, etc, for sale at a small profit. Campers can board at the Hotel if they prefer, at fair rates A large Livery Stable, two new and fine Ten Pin Alleys, attached to the place.

Stage Office to Oysterville, Postoffice, Wells, Fargo & Co's office also there. No raw winds or damp fogs, and more beautiful tracks and shady groves cannot be found. The only regret the Landlord has, is that his house is not larger, but his grounds are large enough and beautiful enough to warrant next season a Hotel worthy of the surroundings.

C. H. DEXTER, Proprietor.

FOR SALE,

690 Acres of Dairy Land,

On the North bank of the Columbia River and on the East bank of Chinook River, near its mouth, just 4 miles above Fort Canby.

THIS PLACE IS ESPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR a Dairy, 450 acres of it being excellent ... portion being hilly where grass ... to keep 100 cows ... spring, and when that gives out there is enough Tide land range (upon which the grass is always green), to keep the cattle fat. One year's crop of Hay will nearly pay for the place

This place is offered at a sacrifice for cash, or time will be given on part of the purchase price.

EUGENE ITEMS.

Our correspondent at Eugene sends the following under date of June 12th:

Eugene is noted for one thing—it sends more people to the depot twice a day, upon the arrival of the trains, than any town in the State, upon an average.

To day is the warmest one of the season, and we are in hopes the good weather may continue, as the grain is beginning to suffer from such long continued rain.

The Springfield express, with the President, Vice President and other officers, paid Springfield an official visit Sunday. The trip must be a pleasant one, for they returned looking well pleased.

Almost every one seems satisfied with the result of the election, with the exception of one defeated candidate, who consoles himself with torturing a poor organ almost every evening with a melancholy tune.

A party of five or six of our citizens are going out fishing this week, and as the most of them are experienced hands, and they go well prepared, we expect some big fish stories as well as a goodly show of fish upon their return.

Who would go to Portland when such a grand time is going to be had here at home, on the Fourth of July? Already three or four men have begun to get excited, so just think what a state they will be in by that time. The ball in the evening, after the celebration, will no doubt be a grand affair, as it is under the supervision of the fire boys, who know just how to make such a thing a success.

A party of our young bloods started for Springfield Saturday night, serenading. The rain, however, prevented them from getting there. Upon their return with a hand car to the depot they found the owner of the car waiting for them, who informed them that on Monday morning they should be interviewed by the recorder. The consequences are, some of the number cannot be found, they thinking the joke was intended for earnest.

OREGON.

The Polk county Telegram boasts of having in its possession a chicken having four wings and four legs.

The M. E. church people are holding a campmeeting on Wildhorse creek, about three miles from Weston.

Two ladies of Salem, out riding in the sun and wearing drab-colored veils, were badly poisoned. The doctors say it was the veils.

Mr. Moorehouse, of Umatilla, has 200 acres of growing wheat, which good judges say will yield sixty bushels to the acre. Think of that—12,000 bushels of wheat off of 200 acres!

Election day in Union county, says the Sentinel, passed off very quietly, and but little electioneering was done on either side, all seeming to agree that the people would vote as they pleased anyway.

Intelligence was brought to Albany last Monday evening that the body of Christopher Ralston had been found in the drift one mile below where the accident occurred. Particulars of the finding of the body have not transpired.

Since the snow has melted the road across the Blue Mountains is said to be very bad. One teamster had to lash his mules together with rawhide to keep them in sight. The wagon frequently struck bed rock, but no doubt he is exaggerating it a little.

The Astorian says a man named Ferrell, who was so unfortunate as to be taken sick at Astoria, amongst strangers, and without money, was sent to his family by the Gussie Telfair, and arrived safely. His case was a very bad one of typhus fever, but he was treated in a careful manner by Dr. Crang, and was looked after by Mr. F. Ferrell (no relative), and was finally passed by the Oregon Steamship Co. All deserve credit for their kindness to him.

About two weeks ago a ten mule team was suddenly stopped by an obstruction called a toll gate, put across the street of Orodell, on the other side of the Blue Mountains, on the Meacham road. "Take this fixin' out of my road," coolly said the teamster to Foster, the man who stood ready to collect the toll. "I will," replied the latter, "as soon as I get my money. This here is a new thing, but my property." "If you don't move it I will," and seeing that Foster meant business, he hitched his entire team onto the concern and shouted "Git!" A loud crash followed, and now Foster, with rifle in hand, commanded the teamster to desist. The latter being unarmed, did desist, and had Foster arrested for stopping him on the road with a deadly weapon. It has cost Mr. F. $60 already, and the end has not come yet.

DR. MCBRIDE.—What the editor of the Stockton Independent says of Dr. McBride and his World's Relief: "This skillful practitioner, and very popular gentleman, has spent the week in this city introducing a medicine which possesses wonderful potency in curing pain. It is called 'World's Relief,' and is properly named, for in every case of physical suffering which has come under Dr. McBride's observation and treatment, relief is almost instantaneous. The close, searching, keen discrimination requisite in distinguishing and determining the nature and character of the disease and their symptoms, is an indispensable characteristic of the first-class physician, and to Dr. McBride's wonderful diagnostic ability is in the main to be attributed his miraculous success in curing pains, no matter from what cause arising. Such men are benefactors to their race." Dr. McBride may be found at Rooms No. 6 and 7, Cosmopolitan Hotel. He will remain in the city thirty days.

RETURNED.

Dr. Wightman has again returned to this city, where he can be found at his rooms, northeast corner of Stark and Fourth streets. Remember he makes a specialty of HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES and other DISEASES OF THE RECTUM, giving IMMEDIATE RELIEF AND CURING in a very short time, without interfering with the business of the patient. I use no knife, caustic, ligature or any other painful remedies, having treated many cases of twenty and thirty years' standing with entire satisfaction to the parties treated, I have no hesitation in saying SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. Persons at a distance may consult by mail. The "process" sent by express C O D (not by mail). Consultation fee, $2. Postoffice box, 247, Portland, Oregon.

LADIES!—Are you or do you know of any person suffering from Rheumatism, Toothache, Headache, Ague, or Swelled Face? Any bleeding of the lungs, soreness or ulceration of the throat, or inflammatory pains, external or internal, in any part of the body? Has any accident produced burns, bruises, sprains, wounds, inflammation or hemorrhage? Then resort to POND'S EXTRACT of the shrub Witch Hazel, the most potent, clean, wholesome pain reliever and healer in the world. This assertion is attested to by every person who has used it. We know of no exceptions. It is not a patent medicine, and is endorsed in the medical publications of all schools. Pond's Extract is sold by all first class druggists at 50c, $1 00 and $1 75 per bottle—the largest size much the cheapest. If your druggist does not have it for sale, request him to obtain it for you.

LAND FOR IMMIGRANTS.
Choice Farms for Sale.
1,600 ACRES, IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT PURCHASERS.

230 ACRES DUE SOUTH AND ADJOINING the Railroad Depot at Salem, all under cultivation, and suitable for grain or vegetables.

148 Acres four miles southeast of Salem on the railroad, with Mill creek running through it. This is the choicest farming land in Marion county, with fine springs, consisting in part, of the old Rector donation claim, on which I raised the past year fifty bushels of wheat and three tons of timothy per acre. The first crop of oats ever raised on part of this land measured ninety-four bushels per acre grain weighed and ground chained by Mr. Alfred Stanton of Salem.

1,200 Acres of prairie and light brush land, with timber for farming purposes, bounded by the Willamette River for four miles, beautiful lake on the east, boat landings all along the river, commanding four miles north of Salem—all choice grain land—the largest and most suitable body of land to be found in the Willamette Valley to be purchased by a colony. To be sold from $15 to $25 per acre. This land will all be immediately sold or and can be sold in larger or smaller parcels, to suit purchasers. It can be subdivided to the best possible advantage, and I can offer any person or persons, or colony of persons, desiring to purchase homes in the best part of the Willamette Valley, near the city of Salem and within reach of the best social advantages, as well as most favorably located with respect to markets, greater advantages, on more favorable terms, than they can ever expect to realize again.

HANNAH

An itinerant preacher thus [illegible]
time he had in preaching to [illegible]
I talked of Sin and they listened [illegible]
As I told of the [illegible] governing [illegible]
In most [illegible]
And [illegible] from out the gate [illegible]
[illegible]
This is what the matter will [illegible]

I [illegible] around for the troubled [illegible]
And called her out by her given name,
(For I did not know the other),
And I said with a sigh when the crowd could hear
"Woman called Hannah, if thou art near,
Approach thy Christian brother"

My hearers laughed at my earnest cry,
And "Put a shanty over his eye"
Cried out some in mocking fashion,
But I paid no heed to the scolding few—
"Hannah, my sister, I call for you
In love—not wrath nor passion"

"Come, then to the altar oh child [illegible]
Then spoke another "Not any for Joe!"
I wondered at him slightly
And said, "Oh Joseph, the flesh is weak
It makes me tremble to hear you speak
Of holy things so lightly."

Then up from the heathens came a cry
Of "Bully, old fellow!" "How is that for high?"
It fairly made me shiver
And I trembled in heart as well as in limb
And they fiendishly screamed "Put a head on him, Jim,
And pitch him into the river!"

But I stood my ground and commenced to tell
Of certain fires in a terrible hell
That would burn them up forever
If they lived for the world Said a man of pelf
"O, golly, you know how it is yourself"
To this I answered "Never!"

And started for home, as they would not yield,
And I had neither a sword or shield
That I might defend my banner
And to day I sigh for the slough of sin
Which one poor woman is working in,
Whose given name is Hannah

The fair weather of which we have now had nearly a week, has not tended to produce any important revival of activity in business circles and though there is some increase noted in the demand for monetary favors at the city banks the available funds are not reduced, as there is a prevalent policy on the part of the lending institutions to reserve their means, or rather, to keep them within close reach that any extensive requirement which may be brought about by a revival of business later in the season may be promptly met. There has never, perhaps, in the commercial history of our State been a season in which men in mercantile pursuits have reaped less profits in proportion to the volume of transactions than the present one, but the more conservative policy upon which they have acted has resulted in leaving them generally upon a solid footing and in better than an average situation to begin another half year While their margins have been small, they have as carefully as possible avoided bad debts and long credits, and been able to gauge the extent of their operations so as to meet the demands of their trade without going beyond it to venture on the sometimes rich but often dangerous fields of speculation Hence we apprehend that most of them find that upon footing up for the fiscal year they will find although the net results are not commensurate with their hopes at its opening the feeling of security attained is encouraging and stimulates a continuation of the same conservative policy in the future

Invoicing Imports.

The Secretary of the Treasury has addressed a communication to collectors of customs announcing that this department is informed that by convention or agreement between foreign manufacturers, prices of certain merchandise are fixed for sale to all foreign purchasers except those in the United States and that invoices of such merchandise imported into the United States are valued at prices less than those so fixed In estimating the foreign market value of imported merchandise, appraisers will therefore take into consideration such agreements or conventions, as well as other evidence ordinarily considered by them, being careful to allow only such discounts exhibited on the invoices as are according to the usual and established usages of trade and to observe article 446 of the general regulations which provides that discounts shall not be allowed when the invoice value will be reduced thereby below the foreign market value at the date of exportation

Home Produce Market.

As will be seen by the quotations there are but few changes in this department of trade The wheat and flour trade is almost at an entire stand still only an occasional lot of either being offered and these find no very anxious or urgent buyers even at the low rates current. Wheat exporters seem much indisposed to speculate, and as they have no vessels at hand to load and the harvest being so near at hand that prices may shortly move very rapidly in some direction, and it is feared that it will not be upwards

The wool trade both here and at the East remains undisturbed by any fluctuations and it has perhaps been noticed that the burden of the reports by telegraph for the past month concerning this commodity has been that the demand is dull with light prospects of any general improvement
